Chestnuts Primary School NEWSLETTER

8th December 2017 | Issue 0012

Dear Parent and Carers,

We have had such a busy few weeks in school with lots of visits and trips. The Library of Everything continues to stun us with letters arriving from Peabody the Librarian. We look forward to receiving and sending even more stories off to the Library!

Thank you so much to the PSA and all of you for a hugely successful Winter Fair. I know I enjoyed myself and I am sure you all did as well. It amazes me the amount of support we receive from you all and we are truly grateful.

Please make sure you check the school website for dates coming up. I am trying very hard to put everything on there so that you can plan in advance.

Thank you,

Mrs Horwood

Winter Fair

Thanks to the many volunteers for making our Winter Fair a great success. Santa saw 127 children and you baked almost as many fantastic cakes! It was a very festive event with the Sometimes Singers, a very popular raffle and the brilliant lantern parade to lead people home.

If you missed out on the limited edition Winter Birds PSA bags, we still have a few robins and goldcrests available. £4.20 each. See the office or email us on chestnutsprimarypsa@gmail.com.

Please see below for a few pictures of the Winter Fair.

Thanks for working with us, at this special school,

Jen, Ellie & Becky
